

Air Astra opens new sales office in Banani

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 June, 2024

Dhaka : Country's newest airline Air Astra opened its new sales office in the capital's Banani on May 20.

Renowned celebrity Sadia Islam Mou, Imran Asif, CEO and other high officials of Air Astra attended the inauguration ceremony. Representatives from several travel agencies were also present on the occasion. The inauguration ceremony was followed by a milad.

Speaking on the occasion, Sadia Islam Mou said, "I feel very happy to be present at this event of Air Astra. It has already won the hearts of passengers with its vibrant look and premium service. I hope they will continue to serve passengers through their quality service and safe flight operations."

The new Banani sales office is Air Astra's fourth one so far. The opening of the new sales office allows nearby passengers to purchase tickets and holiday packages directly from it. All other facilities such as ticket refund and change of flight time are also available at the sales office.

Currently, Air Astra operates daily 14 flights from Dhaka to Cox's Bazar, Chattogram, Sylhet and Saidpur.

The airline operates a fleet of 3x modern French-built ATR72-600 aircraft configured with 70 seats.

Air Astra will start flights on international routes very soon, said a release.