Dhaka: Recently, it has been noticed by the industry stakeholders that a website "travelport.com.bd" is claiming to be the website of Galileo Bangladesh Ltd, official partner of Travelport in the country.

This is false and the information present on the website is fraudulent, claimed the industry elites.

The website claims, they can provide GDS access in exchange for money which is absolutely incorrect, noted the industry insiders. Customers must not rely on such website, they urged.

On the other hand, it may be mentioned here that the official website of Travelport is travelport.com.
