

Thai Airways CEO resigns

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 19 June, 2021

Dhaka: Thai Airways announced that its acting Chief Executive Officer Chansin Treenuchagron has resigned and Suvadhana Sibunruang, the current Chief of Human Resources has taken over the position.

The decision comes a day after the Central Bankruptcy Court of Thailand gave the final go-ahead for Thai Airways' rehabilitation plan. Chansin would remain as an administrator to supervise the business rehabilitation.

The business reorganization plan includes a revenue increase plan, expense reduction, work process adjustment, and organizational restructuring to sustainably increase efficiency. The financial reorganization includes debt and capital restructuring.

Thai Airways Related News:

Thai Hotel Association urge Government for Subsidiary

Phuket ready for int'l visitors in July despite Thai covid wave

