

Thai Airways resuming flights to and from Dhaka on Jan 1

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 16 October, 2021

Dhaka: Thai Airways has announced to resume flight services to and from Dhaka, Bangladesh from January 1, 2022.

The airline will operate flights on Bangkok-Dhaka-Bangkok route on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from January 1, said Thai Airways in an announcement.

Also, Thai Airways will resume full services on 36 foreign routes to destinations in Europe, Asia and Australia, most on October 31, in response to the government's decision to reopen the kingdom to tourists on November 1.

THAI Executive Vice President for Commerce Non Kalinta announced the decision on October 14.

He said the resumption of international services was in the airline's winter flight plan, to be implemented from October 31 to March 26.

Resumed routes to support the Phuket Sandbox reopening are as follows: Bangkok-Phuket-London and return, from Bangkok on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays; Bangkok-Phuket-Frankfurt and return, from Bangkok on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; Bangkok-
